Dear Sir:

I inclose herewith form of facts, certificate of arrival and declaration of intention No. 929 made in your court on June 8, 1911, by Robert Atkinson Inglis for his use in filing petition for naturalization. Mr. Inglis resides at 716 16th St., Sacramento, Cal.

It will be noted that the certificate of arrival was by inadvertence not signed by the Commissioner of Immigration, but it is believed that by filing with the said certificate of arrival and making it a part thereof the letter from the Commissioner of Immigration dated May 16, 1918, transmitting said certificate of arrival to this office, the defect will be cured.

I have this day advised Mr. Inglis to appear promptly and file petition as his declaration will expire June 8, 1918.

Very respectfully,
